[Motion filed on August 5, 2008]

ORDER GRANTING DEFENDANT
UPLAND UNIFIED SCHOOL
DISTRICT AND WEST END
SPECIAL EDUCATION LOCAL PLAN
AGENCY'S MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

The Court has received and considered all papers filed in support of, and in opposition to, Defendants
Upland Unified School District and West End Special Education Local Plan Agency's Motion for Summary
Judgment. The Motion is appropriate for resolution without oral argument pursuant to Local Rule 7-15. The 1 hearing, currently set for October 27, 2008 at 10:00 a.m.

2 is VACATED. For the reasons set forth below, the Court
3 GRANTS the Motion.

4 5 6 I. BACKGROUND

7 When Plaintiff K.C., by and through his Guardian Ad
8 Litem, filed his complaint, he was seven years old. (See 9 Compl. ¶ 4.) K.C. suffers from autism and requires 10 special education services under the laws of the State of 11 California and the Individuals with Disabilities
12 Education Act ("IDEA"). (See id. ¶ 11.) K.C. was 13 enrolled in the Upland Unified School District, within 14 the West End Special Education Local Plan Area. (See id.
15 ¶ 4.) From June 2004 until September 2005, Plaintiff's 16 mother and several education officials met to create and,
17 later, to revise Plaintiff's Individual Education Plan
18 ("IEP"), which determined what additional services would 19 be provided to Plaintiff and who would provide them.
20 (See id. at ¶¶ 13-31.) Following a meeting on August 22, 21 2005, disagreement arose between the parties over the 22 IEP's duration and whether a district aide or private 23 tutor would be used. (See id. at ¶¶ 29-31.)

24 On November 10, 2005, Plaintiff K.C. filed a "[D]ue 25 [P]rocess Request" and "Motion for Stay-Put [Order]" with 26 the California Office of Administrative Hearings ("OAH"),
27 Special Education Division. On July 11, 2007, the OAH
28

1 Administrative Law Judge Wendy A. Weber issued a decision
2 ("OAH Decision") denying Plaintiff's Request and Motion.

3
4 Plaintiff filed his complaint ("Compl.") in this
5 Court on November 28, 2006, with the following claims:
6 (1) "for determination of stay put/temporary restraining 7 order," preliminary and permanent injunction, and for 8 "order for stay put [sic]" against Defendants Upland
9 Unified School District ("Upland USD") and West End
10 Special Education Local Planning Agency ("SELPA"); (2)
11 violation of 28 U.S.C. § 1983 against Defendants Joan
12 Reilly ("Reilly") and Lynda Spicer ("Spicer"); (3)
13 "violation of § 504 [sic]" against Defendants Upland USD
14 and SELPA; (4) "denial of [D]ue [P]rocess" against 15 Defendant OAH; and, (5) "denial of Individuals with 16 Disabilities Education Act ("IDEA") stay-put" against 17 Defendants Upland USD and SELPA.

18
19 Plaintiff filed his First Amended Complaint ("First 20 Am. Compl.") on April 30, 2007 listing the following 21 claims: (1) "denial of [D]ue [P]rocess rights" against 22 Defendant OAH; (2) "for order reversing and enjoining
23 existing OAH order for stay-put [sic]" against Defendants 24 Upland USD, OAH, and SELPA; and (3) for preliminary and 25 permanent injunction against Defendants Upland USD and 26 SELPA.

27 ///

1 On October 11, 2007, Plaintiff filed a motion for 2 leave to file a Second Amended Complaint.<sup>1</sup> On November
3 16, 2007, the court granted Plaintiff's motion and 4 Plaintiff filed said document on that date. The Second 5 Amended Complaint asserts the following claims: (1) "for 6 order enjoining existing stay-put order" and for 7 preliminary and permanent injunction against Defendants
8 Upland USD and SELPA; (2) "for denial of due process 9 rights" against Defendant California Department of 10 Education ("Cal. DoE"); (3) "for violation of section 504 11 [sic]" against Defendants Upland USD and SELPA; (4) for 12 violation of 28 U.S.C. § 1983 against Defendants Reilly
13 and Spicer; (5) "for reversal of due process decision"
14 against Defendants Upland USD and WELPA; (6) for 15 attorney's fees and costs against Defendants Upland USD
16 and WELPA. On January 16, 2008, the Court dismissed
17 Plaintiff's fourth claim and Defendants Reilly and Spicer
18 from the action.

20 On August 5, 2008, Defendants<sup>2</sup> filed their Motion for 21 Summary Judgment ("Mot."), a Statement of Uncontroverted 22 Facts, ("Def.'s SUF"), a proposed Order, a Request for 23

24 <sup>1</sup> Plaintiff should have captioned the pleading as a
25 "Second Amended and Supplemental Complaint" because it 26 attempted to assert claims which had arisen after the filing of the original Complaint. See Fed. R. Civ. P.
15(d).

27 <sup>2</sup> For ease of reference, Defendants Upland USD and 28 WELPA are referred to collectively in this Order as "Defendants."

1 Judicial Notice, the Declaration of Rosie Ruiz ("Ruiz
2 Decl."), and the Declaration of Brian Sciacca ("Sciacca
3 Decl."). Defendants move for summary judgment on 4 Plaintiff's first, third, fifth and sixth causes of 5 action. Plaintiff filed his Opposition to Defendants'
6 summary judgment motion ("Opp'n"), a Statement of Genuine
7 Issues of material fact (Pl.'s SGI), and the Declaration
8 of Tania Whiteleather ("Whiteleather Decl.") on August
9 28, 2008. Defendants filed their Reply on September 8, 10 2008.

12 On September 10, 2008, the Court issued an Order
13 requiring supplemental briefing on three issues not 14 addressed in the parties' papers.<sup>3</sup> Defendants filed
15 their supplemental brief ("Supp. Mot.") on September 17, 16 2008. Plaintiff neglected to file any opposition to 17 Defendants' supplemental brief.

18 ///

19 ///

---

21 <sup>3</sup> The Court ordered the parties to submit 22 supplemental briefing on the following issues:
23 "(1) Whether Plaintiff was required to exhaust his 24 remedies as to his Section 504 claim before the OAH as a prerequisite to filing a claim in the U.S. District
25 Court, and if so, whether he did so exhaust;
26 (2) Whether an OAH's ruling on an IDEA claim has a preclusory effect in future proceedings before the U.S.
27 District Court on a Section 504 claim;
28 (3) Whether attorneys fees are available on a Section 504 claim when the party seeking the fees did not prevail before the OAH in his IDEA claim." (See Order dated September 10, 2008.)

II. LEGAL STANDARD

A motion for summary judgment shall be granted when there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(c); Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 247-48 (1986). The moving party must show that "under the governing law, there can be but one reasonable conclusion as to the verdict." Anderson, 477 U.S. at 250.

Generally, the burden is on the moving party to demonstrate that it is entitled to summary judgment. Margolis v. Ryan, 140 F.3d 850, 852 (9th Cir. 1998); Retail Clerks Union Local 648 v. Hub Pharmacy, Inc., 707 F.2d 1030, 1033 (9th Cir. 1983). The moving party bears the initial burden of identifying the elements of the claim or defense and evidence that it believes demonstrates the absence of an issue of material fact. Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 323 (1986).

Where the non-moving party has the burden at trial, however, the moving party need not produce evidence negating or disproving every essential element of the non-moving party's case. Celotex, 477 U.S. at 325. Instead, the moving party's burden is met by pointing out that there is an absence of evidence supporting the non-moving party's case. Id.

1 The burden then shifts to the non-moving party to 2 show that there is a genuine issue of material fact that 3 must be resolved at trial. Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(e);
4 Celotex, 477 U.S. at 324; Anderson, 477 U.S. at 256. The 5 non-moving party must make an affirmative showing on all 6 matters placed in issue by the motion as to which it has 7 the burden of proof at trial. Celotex, 477 U.S. at 322;
8 Anderson, 477 U.S. at 252. See also William W.
9 Schwarzer, A. Wallace Tashima & James M. Wagstaffe,
10 Federal Civil Procedure Before Trial § 14:144.

11 12 III. DEFENDANTS' REQUEST FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE

13 The Court grants Defendants' request for judicial 14 notice of the Final Administrative Decision ("OAH
15 Decision") issued by the OAH Administrative Law Judge.
16 Fed. R. Evid 201. The Court does not take judicial 17 notice of the facsimile cover sheet or the transmission
18 confirmation page, although it considers them as evidence
19 sufficiently authenticated by the Ruiz Declaration.

20 21 IV. UNCONTROVERTED FACTS<sup>4</sup>

22 The following material facts are supported adequately
23 by admissible evidence and are uncontroverted. They are 24

26
27 <sup>4</sup> Defendants limit their Motion to facts pertaining 28 to whether or not Plaintiff filed his case within the applicable statute of limitations period. (See Mot.)
The Court limits the scope of this Order accordingly.

1 "admitted to exist without controversy" for the purposes
2 of this Motion. See Local Rule 56-3.

3
4 On November 10, 2005, Plaintiff K.C. filed a request
5 for a Due Process hearing and a motion for a "stay-put"
6 Order<sup>5</sup> with the California Office of Administrative 7 Hearings ("OAH"), Special Education Division. (See OAH
8 Decision at 1; Def.'s SUF ¶ 1.)

9
10 On July 11, 2007, OAH Administrative Law Judge Wendy
11 A. Weber issued a final administrative decision. (See 12 OAH Decision; Def.'s SUF ¶ 3-4.) The decision was served
13 on all parties by facsimile and U.S. mail on July 11,
14 2007. (See Def.'s SUF ¶ 4.)

15
16 In this civil action, Plaintiff first sought leave to 17 amend his pleading to add a claim seeking reversal of the 18 OAH decision on October 11, 2007, ninety-two days after 19 July 11, 2007. (See Def.'s SUF ¶ 6; Pl.'s SGI ¶ 1.)

23 <sup>5</sup> Title 20 U.S.C. § 1415 (j) defines a stay-put order
24 ("Maintenance of current education placement") as 25 follows: "Except as provided in subsection (k)(4) of this 26 section, during the pendency of any proceedings conducted 27 pursuant to this section, unless the State or local 28 educational agency and the parents otherwise agree, the child shall remain in the then-current educational placement of the child, or, if applying for initial admission to a public school, shall, with the consent of the parents, be placed in the public school program until all such proceedings have been completed."

1 filed his Second Amended Complaint on November 16, 2007.
2 (See Second Am. Compl.)

4 Since either July or September 2007,<sup>6</sup> Plaintiff has 5 enrolled in another school district within a different
6 SELPA and has agreed to implementation of an IEP
7 developed by that new school district. (See Def.'s SUF ¶
8 7; Pl.'s SGI ¶ 9.)

VI. DISCUSSION

11

A. Plaintiff's Fifth Claim, for Reversal of Due Process 12 Decision

13

15

16

17

Defendants contend that Plaintiff failed to file his appeal timely from the OAH Decision. (Mot. at 5.) They argue this claim must be dismissed for failure to file it within the appropriate statute of limitations period.
(Id.)

19

20

21

22

23

Plaintiff was required to file his appeal no later than ninety days from his "receipt of the hearing decision." Cal. Educ. Code § 56505(k). It is undisputed that Plaintiff "filed" his appeal ninety-two days after

25

26

27

28

<sup>6</sup> Plaintiff's SGI ¶ 9 states, "KC has been attending school in another school district since July, 2007" whereas Plaintiff's Memorandum and Points of Authorities states, "Plaintiff acknowledges that, as of September, 2007, he was enrolled in a program in another school district."

1 his receipt of the hearing decision.<sup>7</sup> (Def.'s SUF ¶ 6;
 2 Pl.'s SGI ¶ 1.) Based on these undisputed material
 3 facts, Defendants are entitled to judgment as a matter of 4 law on this issue.

5
 6 In its January 16, 2008, Order ruling on Defendants'
 7 Motion to Dismiss, which neither party addressed here,
 8 the Court ruled:

9 "[A] California regulation appears to set forth
 10 the proper manner of transmitting hearing
 11 decisions and other documents related to the 12 special education due process hearings. See
 13 Cal. Code. Regs. tit. 5, § 3038. The regulation
 14 does not require a party's consent to receive 15

16 <sup>7</sup> As stated above, Plaintiff filed a Motion on 17 October 11, 2007 seeking leave to amend his First Amended 18 Complaint in order to add a claim seeking reversal of the 19 OAH decision. The Court granted the motion on November 16, 2007 and Plaintiff filed his Second Amended Complaint on that date.

20 As it is not in dispute between the parties, the 21 Court views Plaintiff's Second Amended Complaint, 22 specifically the "appeal" from the OAH decision, as 23 constructively filed on October 11, 2007. Based on that 24 date, Plaintiff's filing was two days late to satisfy the ninety-day Statute of Limitations period. The ninetieth day fell on October 8, 2007, which was a Court holiday, so Plaintiff had to file his appeal from the OAH Decision by at least October 9, 2007 to be timely.

25 The "appeal" claim involved "events different from 26 those involved in the original action," namely, that the 27 OAH Administrative Law Judge issued her final decision; the relation-back principle of Rule 15 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure does not apply. See, e.g., 28 William Inglis & Sons Baking Co. v. ITT Continental
Baking Co., 668 F.2d 1014, 1057 (9th Cir. 1981).

1 electronic communications, nor does it provide an 2 extension of time to respond to such communications, as 3 Plaintiff asserts. Instead, the regulation provides:

4
5 '[S]ervice of notice, motions, or other
6 writings pertaining to special education due
7 process hearing procedures to the California
8 Special Education Hearing Office and any other
9 person or entity are subject to the following
10 provisions:

11
12 (a) The notice, motion, or writing shall be delivered 13 personally or sent by mail or other means to the 14 Hearing Office, person, or entity at their last known 15 address and, if the person or entity is a party with 16 an attorney or other authorized representative of 17 record in the proceeding, to the party's attorney or 18 other authorized representative.

19
20 (b) Unless a provision specifies the form of 21 mail, service or notice by mail may be by first-
22 class mail, registered mail, or certified mail,
23 by mail delivery service, by facsimile
24 transmission if complete and without error, or 25 by other electronic means as provided by 26 regulation, in the discretion of the sender.'
27 Cal. Code Regs. tit. 5, § 3038 (emphasis added)."
28

1 The Regulation does not allow for an extension of 2 time, based on method of service, to the 90 day statute
3 of limitations period. Cal. Code Regs. tit. 5, § 3038.
4 The parties fail to address this Regulation in their 5 papers. The Court finds the Regulation dispositive of 6 the issue and rejects Defendants' and Plaintiff's
7 arguments about the applicability of 20 U.S.C. §
8 1415(h)(4)<sup>8</sup> or California Code of Civil Procedure
9 ("C.C.P.") § 1013(e).<sup>9</sup>

10
11 As the Regulation is of parallel construction and 12 relates to Cal. Gov. Code § 11440.20(b) ("Unless a 13 provision specifies the form of mail, service or notice
14

15 <sup>8</sup> Plaintiff argues that the IDEA, 20 U.S.C. §
16 1415(h)(4), preempts Cal. Gov. Code § 11440.20(b).
17 (Opp'n at 4.) Plaintiff contends that the state law
18 allows additional methods of service that the federal law
19 does not, namely service by facsimile. Id. at 3
20 ("Pursuant to federal law, all due process IDEA
21 administrative decisions are to be mailed to the parties.
22 No other manner of service is authorized.") The Court
23 has reviewed 20 U.S.C. § 1415(h)(4) and finds no such 24 requirement. In fact, that section makes no reference to 25 any required manner of service, besides noting that 26 opinions must be in writing. See 20 U.S.C. § 1415(h)(4).
27 The Court finds Plaintiff's argument without merit.

28 <sup>9</sup> Plaintiff argues he did not consent to service by facsimile as he alleges is required by the California
Code of Civil Procedure ("C.C.P.") § 1013(e). Plaintiff presents declarations of Tania Whiteleather and Dee Rick as evidence that Plaintiff did not consent to service by facsimile. (See Whiteleather Decl. ¶ 2; Rick Decl. ¶ 2.)
Plaintiff also argues that he should be allotted two extra days to the ninety day statute of limitations for two reasons: (1) the facsimile service of the OAH Decision; and, (2) Plaintiff did not file a notice of appeal, but rather a civil action. (Opp'n at 6-7.)

1 by mail may be ... by facsimile transmission if complete
2 and without error ... in the discretion of the sender."),
3 the Court considers the parties' arguments regarding the 4 nature of the service of the OAH Decision.

5
6 Defendants argue service of the OAH Decision upon 7 Plaintiff was complete and proper. (Mot. at 6.) They 8 offer the declaration of Rosie Ruiz, a clerk at the 9 California Office of Administrative Hearings, in support
10 of this argument. (See Ruiz Decl. ¶ 3 ("On July 11,
11 2007, I served via facsimile, a copy of the [OAH]
12 Decision ... on the attorneys of the parties to the 13 action via both mail and facsimile transmission.").)
14 Plaintiff argues, in contrast, that the Ruiz Decl. proves 15 the incompleteness of the service of the OAH Decision.
16 (Opp'n at 5.)

18 At the time it ruled on Defendants' Motion to 19 Dismiss, the Court considered only the facts stated on 20 the face of the Complaint. (See Order dated January 16, 21 2008.) The Court found the date of Plaintiff's receipt 22 of the OAH Decision "not apparent from the face of the 23 [Complaint]." (Id.) On summary judgment, however, the 24 Court is not limited to the pleadings and considers all
25 admissible evidence. The Ruiz and Whiteleather 26 Declarations, taken together, show Plaintiff received the 27 OAH Decision by facsimile on July 11, 2007. When filing
28

1 the original proof of service, Ruiz "inadvertently
2 neglected to include the fax transmission report." (Ruiz
3 Decl. ¶ 3.)

4
5 Ruiz's admitted oversight did not render the service
6 of the OAH Decision "incomplete." There is no evidence
7 that the copy of the OAH Decision received by Plaintiff
8 was lacking or incomplete in any way; only the 9 certificate of service was incomplete. The essential
10 function of service is to provide notice (see, e.g., 11 Henderson v. U.S., 517 U.S. 654, 671-72 (1996), and that 12 function was fulfilled here. Plaintiff received notice
13 by facsimile on July 11, 2007. See Whiteleather Decl. ¶
14 3.

15
16 Plaintiff had no additional time beyond the 90 days
17 allowed to appeal the OAH Decision. It is uncontroverted 18 that Plaintiff did not even seek leave to amend his 19 complaint until ninety-two days had elapsed after the OAH
20 Decision was served on Plaintiff. Plaintiff's fifth
21 claim is untimely and Defendants are entitled to judgment
22 as a matter of law.

23 ///

26 ///

27 ///

28

1 B. Plaintiff's First Claim, for an Order Enjoining
2 Existing Stay-Put Order and for Preliminary and 3 Permanent Injunction

4 In his opposition to Defendants' Motion, Plaintiff
5 states, "Plaintiff hereby withdraws his request for a
6 stay-put order in this matter." (Opp'n at 8.) The Court
7 understands this statement to mean Plaintiff seeks to 8 withdraw his first claim entirely. In any event, the 9 claim is moot due to Plaintiff K.C.'s enrollment in a new 10 school district.

11
12 C. Plaintiff's Third Claim, for Violation of Section 504
13 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973

14 Defendants argue that Plaintiff's third claim should 15 be dismissed because it does nothing other than raise 16 Plaintiff's untimely appeal from the OAH Decision through 17 a new statutory vehicle, § 504 of the Rehabilitation Act.
18 (Mot. at 11) It is undisputed that Plaintiff did not
19 raise his § 504 claim before the Administrative Law
20 Judge.

21
22 The IDEA states:

23 "Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to 24 restrict or limit the rights, procedures, and 25 remedies available under the Constitution, the 26 Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, title V of 27 the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 [including § 504], or 28

1 other Federal laws protecting the rights of children
2 with disabilities, except that before the filing of a 3 civil action under such laws seeking relief that is 4 also available under this subchapter [Assistance for 5 Education of All Children with Disabilities], the 6 procedures under subsections (f) [Impartial Due
7 Process Hearing] and (g) [Appeal Procedures] of this 8 section shall be exhausted to the same extent as 9 would be required had the action been brought under 10 this subchapter." 20 U.S.C. § 1415(l) (internal 11 citations omitted).

12 Although parents and disabled children may bring 13 claims under federal laws other than the IDEA for 14 education-related injuries, the IDEA exhaustion
15 requirements must be met if the claims "seek relief that 16 is also available under" the IDEA. 20 U.S.C. § 1415(l);
17 Kutasi v. Las Virgenes Unified School Dist., 494 F.3d
18 1162, 1167 (9th Cir. 2007); Blanchard v. Morton Sch.
19 Dist., 420 F.3d 918, 920 (9th Cir. 2005).

21 In Mark H. v. Lemahieu, 513 F.3d 922, 928 (9th Cir.
22 2008), the Ninth Circuit held that § 504 of the 23 Rehabilitation Act and the IDEA are related statutes that 24 provide different remedies: the IDEA provides injunctive 25 relief and § 504 provides monetary damages. "For the 26 purposes of exhaustion, relief that is also available
27 under the IDEA does not necessarily mean relief that 28

1 fully satisfies the aggrieved party. Rather, it means
2 relief suitable to remedy the wrong done the plaintiff,
3 which may not always be relief in the precise form the 4 plaintiff prefers." Blanchard v. Morton School District,
5 420 F.3d 918, 921 (9th Cir. 2005) (internal quotations
6 omitted) (citation omitted).

7
8 The technical difference of remedies available under 9 each statute does not render the statutes sufficiently 10 different that relief under § 504 is not "available
11 under" the IDEA. Based on the face of 20 U.S.C. § 12 1415(1), Congress intended to subject § 504 claims to the 13 same exhaustion requirements as IDEA claims. See 20
14 U.S.C. § 1415(1).

15
16 Other courts have reached this conclusion as well.
17 J.W. ex rel. J.E.W. v. Fresno Unified School Dist., - F.
18 Supp. 2d -, 2008 WL 2698647 at *2 (E.D. Cal. 2008)
19 ("Plaintiff must exhaust his administrative remedies
20 before bringing federal claims regarding a denial of 21 publicly funded special education under the IDEA and 22 Section 504."); see also Babicz v. School Bd. Of Broward
23 County, 135 F.3d 1420, 1422 (11th Cir. 1998); Hope v.
24 Cortines, 69 F.3d 687 (2nd Cir. 1995); Charlie F. by Neil
25 F. v. Board of Educ. Of Stokie School District 68, 98
26 F.3d 989 (7th Cir. 1996). Plaintiff's failure to exhaust 27 his § 504 claim before the OAH strips the Court of 28

1 subject matter jurisdiction over his § 504 claim. Accord
2 J.W. ex rel. J.E.W., 2008 WL 2698647 at *2. There is no
3 triable issue of fact on this claim and Defendants are 4 entitled to judgment as a matter of law.

5
6 D. Plaintiff's Sixth Claim, for Attorney's Fees and 7 Costs

8 Plaintiff is not a prevailing party on any claim 9 raised before the Court. Thus, Plaintiff's claim for 10 attorney's fees and costs fails. See 20 U.S.C. §
11 1415(i)(3)(B); Hensley v. Eckerhart, 461 U.S. 424, 433
12 (1983) ("plaintiffs may be considered prevailing parties
13 for attorney's fees purposes if they succeed on any 14 significant issue in the litigation which achieves some 15 of the benefit the parties sought in bringing suit."
16 (internal quotations omitted) (citation omitted)); see 17 also Gellerman ex rel. Gellerman v. Calaveras Unified 18 School Dist., 43 Fed. Appx. 28 (9th Cir. 2002) (district
19 court did not abuse its discretion in refusing to award
20 attorney's fees, under IDEA, to disabled student and his 21 parent, because they did not prevail on any issue in 22 action).
